By signing this document Merchant agrees that EVO shall not be responsible for

- 01. any terminal repairs or
- 02. providing a replacement terminal due to equipment failure. The terminal manufacturer shall handle all terminal repairs and replacements. Merchant also understands that due to the complexity of these terminals, the manufacturer may not be able to provide a replacement while completing repairs. In addition, Merchant further agrees that by using a wireless terminal Merchant is not eligible to participate in the EVO Supply/Replacement Program.

EVO is not responsible for any interruptions, outages or other problems of any kind with the wireless services provided pursuant to this addendum. Fees are subject to change.
